

The Dress Code at Ninety Acres is Smart/Business Casual

Our dress code honors a relaxed atmosphere, keeping in line with our table-at-the-farm beliefs.

Suit jackets and blazers are optional; we do, however, encourage guests to wear nice pants, casual dresses or skirts along with collared shirts, blouses or sweaters.

If you prefer denim, we ask that it be in a dark-wash and well kept. This includes no rips or holes.

We ask that athleisure, sportswear, t-shirts, cargo shorts, sneakers, walking sandals, hats and caps be kept for the park. Feel free to express your style, but please make sure you are dressed for the occasion.

We hope to see you in our dining room soon!

 If you are participating in our cooking classes, footwear must be close-toed and low-heeled to ensure safety during food preparation.
